Prospectus of the Perrysburg Journal. VOLUME MINE .- NOW IN THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

On the ninth day of May, No. One of the Ninth Volume of the "PERRYSBURG JOURNAL" will be issued in an enlarged form-giving four columns additional reading matter, and making a twenty-eight column paper, instead of twenty-four column as heretofore. This enlargement will be attended with an additional expense determined to give it a trial. We will here take occasion to return to the citizens of Wood county our thanks for the support given us since we have taken charge of the THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY, May 1801; Ticknor & Fields. paper, and promise them that no efforts will be spared to merit their confidence in the future. In return we shall ask our friends throughout the county to lend us a helptog hand in extending the usefulness of the JOURNAL. Departure of the Perrysburg Volunteers. The good people of Perrysburg. Never have we seen greater interest or sympathy munifested for parting friends than on this occasion. At eight o'clock they formed in front of the Band House and marched down to the Dock, where religious exercises were engaged inconducted by Rev. G. A. Adams. Mr. A. exhorted the people, about these times of national trouble It is a Volunteers to put their trust in God and He would prove their friend in the hour of peril. At the close of these ing from its center a flag and staff emblems of o r exercises, a large and beautiful flag was presented to national honor. Beneath the "stars and strip," are the in which the Pills cannot be taken without producing a ladies of Perryaburg, which was accepted by Captain to traitors! Send and get some, Cook in a few appropriate and touching remarks. Then carro the leave-taking-heaven bless you-farewelldecidedly the most impressive scene ever witnessed in our usually quiet little town. A few minutes later and the troops left per steamer "Belle," amidst the firing of cannon and the loud huzzas of hundre is of friends

Fing for the Fort Meigs Rifles. Our ladies have received their flag and will have i completed in a few days. This flag was intended to have been presented to our Volunteers on the day of their departure, but will now be forwarded to them at Cleveland. It is composed of the very best silk, making its intrinsic value not an inconsiderable sum-a worthy tribute to the patriotism of our loyal soldiers. It is decid edly the finest we have seen for some time, and we think we are safe in assuring our ladies that its rich folds will never be allowed to trail in the dust, in the face of an in-

Well Done.

Our friends on Hull Prairie are wide awake. They have sent seven of their young men to the war and now stand ready to go if they are needed,

Last Sabbath, Mr. Adams mentioned before the serme that the volunteers needed flaunel shirts—that if there were any to spare they might send them in to Captain Cook on Monday. On this hint they acted, and on Mon day morning several of the ladies were on hand to co-oper its wi h our ladies in the man sfacture. They also came with $18 with which to purchase stuff. In these days a mere hint brings money, time and heart for the good cause of our country's liberties.

Relief for Volunteers! Families.

A bill has been introduced into the House of Representatives, which provides that the wife of every volum teer shall receive ten dollars per month for herself, and one dollar additional for every child under 15 years of age. The county auditor is required to procure a list of the families entitled to such aid, and draw his order on the treasurer for the same. The commissioners are authorized to borrow all needed money, and at their June session levy a tax to meet liabilities thus incurred.

"Gilead Worth Guards."

This gallant company arrived in town on Friday and left on Saturday for Cleveland. They belong to Gen. Norton's Division, and are as fine looking set of men as we have seen. Robust, intelligent and free from bad habits, they are generally inured to vigorous action. In case they are called into active service, they will undoubtelly render a glorious account of themselves. They number 109 men, and are officered as follows : Capt. O. C. Carr; 1st Lieut. J. J. Vorhes; 2d Lieut., J. E.

Cleveland Correspondence.

CAMP TATLOR, April 28, 1881.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—I have not time to write you a very lengthy or interesting letter. Our company arrived here anely the same day we left Perrysburg. One of our men, John E. Keyes, was discharged to-day on the application of his father. There are now eighty-eight men good and true in our company. There are at this post about five thousand men who are at drill from daylight until dark—more from their own inclination than from any order to that effect. The boys are all well, and improve very rapidly in their drill. Yours &c., A. M.

Camr Taylor, April 28, 3 o'clock, P. M.
Entron Journal:—Camp Taylor now presents the most animated scene imaginable. There are at least twenty thousand persons present at divine service. Col.
Steadman's Regiment formed and marched in order to the minister's stand. The services terminated by the band playing the "Star Spangled Banner." There was in attendance an excellent choir of vocalists from the city. All see in the best spirits, but a gloom has been enlargement will be attended with an additional expense to us of near two hundred dollars a year, but we believe our efforts will be appreciated and the circulation of the JOURNAL largely increased by so doing—hence we have constructed the soldier, and I believe the former will be lynched if he can be found.

and as he burs entirely upon the cash principle, he can well afferd to sell low for cash - thus giving the purchasor an advantage of at least fifty per cent over former prices. Notice the following:

Good half double soled Boots, sound leather and well male, for Ladies' walking shoes Solid Shank Corn Hoes Smocking Tobacco and all other goods in proportion-cheaper than ever before sold in Perryaburg.

We are now opposing a large assortment of Groceties, hich buyers will do well to call and caamine beforwe keep on hand FEARL MILLS XX FIOUR, which always gives the very best satisfaction.

Corn Meal, Mackeret, and all kinds of Lake and River Fish.

In short he keeps constantly on hand enything the people may want. His goods were hought for cash by a careful and experienced hand—one who understands the art of pleasing all classes and conditions, and he define any merchant in the county to exhibit a better nelected stock of goods than he has upon his shelves. His prices, he is confident, will suit every one, as he has learned that it is of great advantage to the seller to benefit the buyer, from the fact that they reap a reward in the in-crease of cuatom. His customers have already learned that "he can't be undersold," and for the hencest of their wanting neighbors, he would have them "noise it abroad," that the people may be apprised of the great advantages of buying at " Head Quarters."

He pays the highest price in each for Wheat and Corn, at his store on Front Street.
